

Use of AI tools in RA services

AI tools, are used to scale the analysts' work by assisting with data processing, research synthesis, drafting and presentation of reports. The underlying data and investment thesis were provided to the tools. The analysts reviewed, validated and approved all analysis and final reports.